Description of Ballet Classes

Pre-Ballet Ages 3-4

Emphasis on creative dance with an introduction to basic ballet technique. Creative dance nurtures the child to move freely, develop music and listening skills, and express creativity through movement. This level follows a two year syllabus.

Ballet I Ages 5-6

Emphasis on ballet technique including the continual development of musical and improvisational skills. This level follows a two year syllabus.

Ballet II Ages 7-8

Emphasis on ballet technique focusing on correct placement, body alignment, and leg and arm coordination while furthering student's ballet vocabulary, music, and performance skills. This level follows a two year syllabus.

Ballet III Ages 9+

Continual emphasis on elements taught in Ballet II while focusing on phrasing and musicality and the strengthening of ankles and feet in preparation for advanced footwork. Students must attend class twice a week.

Beginning Pointe Ages 12+

In addition to attending Ballet IV classes, students will stay an extra half hour a week to study pointe. Students must obtain permission to attend this class.

Ballet IV

Students continue to broaden ballet technique with continued emphasis on extensions, advanced level pirouettes, beats, phrasing, musicality, and the strengthening of ankles and feet for Beginning Pointe. Students will be individually considered as to readiness for pointe shoes. Students must obtain permission to take this level and must attend a minimum of three classes per week.

Ballet V (Int. & Advanced Pointe)

This level is for the serious student who wishes to pursue a career in dance or is considering a college dance degree. Students must attend a minimum of five classes per week. Ballet IV is a prerequisite to the class. Students with excellent attendance and focus during class will be considered for this level.

Oxford Ballet School II

A pre-professional ballet program offered to the serious ballet student 13 through 25 in Ballet V. Students are given many opportunities to perform throughout the year and are taught how to prepare for auditions.
